RE: ALM Merger w/ Messina's Flooring & Carpet

Effective January 1, 2025 we will be merging with our sister company, Messina's Flooring & Carpet in order to streamline our processes and combine resources.

All the current ALM Floor Covering staff will remain on board and will still be running the Property Management and Commercial Divisions as they have been for the past 13 years.

We look forward to continuing the long-running relationships built over the years as we transition to our new name. We will be reaching out over the next two weeks to ensure we have all the required documentation for certifications to work at all locations & properties.

Should you have an immediate need – we can be reached at the following points of contact.

Andrea Messina, Owner – Email: amessina@messinasflooring.com

Jay Cappello, Property Management & Commercial Division - Email: jcappello@messinasflooring.com
